Hawthorne Power Systems Expands Management Team

With the Promotion of Joe Corbaci and Joel Gollihur

San Diego, CA – Hawthorne Power Systems, the authorized sales, rental, parts and service dealer for Cat electric power, back-up power and stand-by power equipment, and industrial engines in San Diego, announces the promotions of Joe Corbaci to Product Support General Manager and Joel Gollihur to Truck Service Manager.

Corbaci has been with Hawthorne Power Systems for more than 10 years. Corbaci most recently served as Marine Account Manager and Product Support Sales Representative with Hawthorne Power Systems. In his new position, Corbaci will manage the power service department including Electric Power Generation (EPG), Marine, and Truck Service.

“I am looking forward to working with our product support and service team to expand our customer support and service capabilities,” Corbaci says. “This is a great opportunity to enhance the overall customer experience in San Diego and the Pacific Region.”

Joel Gollihur has been a member of the Hawthorne Power Systems team for 11 years. He has transitioned from Truck Shop Service Writer to Truck Product Support Sales Representative. In his new role as Truck Service Manager, Gollihur’s responsibilities will include supervising the Service Team and support staff to ensure the customer experience is outstanding each and every time.

Gollihur says, “Our goal is to continue to strive to make the Hawthorne Truck Shop a place that our customers enjoy going for parts, service and expertise.”

Kirk Fowkes, Hawthorne Power Systems Vice President, says, “Joe Corbaci and Joel Gollihur bring important strategic skill sets to their new roles with Hawthorne Power Systems.” Fowkes concludes, “Together, Joe and Joel will continue to drive our strategic focus on providing the best customer experience in the industry.”
