

Mulligan Constructors, Inc., Named to Florida's Fast 100

Mulligan Constructors, Inc. (MCI) has been named to Florida's Fast 100. This list of the top growing privately held companies in Florida is compiled by The Orlando Business Journal, along with Jacksonville Business Journal, South Florida Business Journal and Tampa Bay Business Journal. MCI is honored to be selected from the state-wide list of eligible companies for its business growth during the 2011 – 2013 qualifying time period.

Companies chosen for this honor must show phenomenal growth in competitive markets in the State of Florida. MCI credits their team approach and commitment to exceeding the client's expectations with their leadership in the construction market. MCI has an outstanding reputation for reliability and quality of work performed on a wide variety of commercial construction projects.

MCI provides the Orlando area with diverse commercial services including Design Build, Pre-Construction, Construction Management, and General Contracting. Completed projects include retail, hospitality, government, restaurants, education, and more. MCI's reputation is built on completing complex projects on time with superior quality and services. This commitment to excellence has fostered the growth recognized in the Business Journal.

Established in 2002, MCI has completed a considerable list of projects and maintained a firm commitment to the Orlando business community. Members in good standing of the West Orange Chamber of Commerce, and an Allied Member of The American Institutes of Architects, MCI brings leadership and vision to the Central Florida area with their commitment to managed development and quality projects.

A family-owned and family-run company, MCI believes that their core values and hands-on management style serves their clients in a uniquely personal manner creating a smoother process and a satisfied client. With a continued commitment to superior service and efficient project management, MCI looks to a future in the Central Florida construction world of continued success and growth.

The Central Florida area has a bright future ahead and MCI will be assured a spot in that future by providing continued outstanding levels of project completion, and a well-earned reputation for reliability in the field of commercial contracting. MCI's philosophy is to focus on scheduling, cost containment, safety and quality on every job and every project.
