M.J. White & Son, Inc. Expands Business, Opens New Facility In North Carolina

NOVI, Michigan, November 3, 2014 - M.J. White & Son, Inc., a leading disaster restoration and renovation contractor with over 30-years experience, announced the opening of a new facility in Indian Trail, North Carolina. The new division, M.J. White & Son, LLC, will service the Greater Charlotte Area.

"With over 30-years experience in Michigan, we are excited to expand our services into North Carolina and are looking forward to building on existing client relationships and meeting new businesses. We are also pleased to announce long term employee and licensed builder, Marc Siegel, is heading up the new office. He has been instrumental in developing and setting up our new location," Michael White, Jr., President.

The new office is located at: 1025-D Technology Drive, Indian Trail, NC 28079.

From its very modest start in 1979, M.J. White & Son, Inc. has grown to be one of the most respected general contractors in Michigan specializing in disaster restoration. With an additional office thriving in Grand Rapids, MI, the newly appointed President and Vice President will continue guiding the company in the right direction for continued growth. The business will continue to focus on delivering unsurpassed restoration services, first-rate customer service and are committed to making a difference for their clients.
