

MEDIA ALERT

Solar Cooker Debuts in Bay Area Nov 14-16

SAN FRANCISCO, CA – November 11, 2014 – Last year the GoSun solar cooking stove took KickStarter by storm. November 14-16 taste the results as GoSun (<http://www.gosunstove.com>) exhibits at Green Festival San Francisco, booth #638 in Fort Mason Center's Herbst and Festival Pavilions. The portable solar stove is now available locally at Ship's Store in Sausalito.

- WHAT: Bay Area Debut for GoSun Stove, fuel-free, solar oven
- WHEN: November 14-16, 2014, 10 AM to 6 PM
- WHERE: Exhibiting at Green Festival San Francisco, Booth Number 638, Fort Mason Center, Herbst and Festival Pavilions, Admission $15
- Available locally at Ship's Store, 100 Bay Street, Sausalito
(415) 339-1300
- WHO: Patrick Sherwin, Inventor and Founder of GoSun Stoves
Green Festival SF <http://www.greenfestivals.org/sf>
- WHY: GoSun's evacuated glass tubing reinvents solar cooking
Created to help developing economies end hunger and poverty
- HOW: GoSun's solar oven starts at $69
Feeds a family of four in 20 minutes, even on cloudy days
Last year GoSun raised over $200,000 on Kickstarter
- INFO: GoSun Stoves, Cincinnati, Ohio, <http://www.gosunstoves.com>
- Bay Area Contact: Alex Campbell, 707-217-3089, alexcampbell707@gmail.com