TLC Schools Receives Nomination for Best Child Care Center for Babies by DFW Child

Popular family and lifestyle publication ranks TLC Schools as one of the best child care centers in the North Texas region.

November 10, 2014 - Dallas, TX – Picking a child care center has always been a difficult task for parents. Fortunately, respected publications like DFW Child make the decision easier with yearly rankings. This year, TLC Schools has been honored with a nomination for one of the best child care centers for babies. This is the first time TLC Schools has been nominated by DFW Child for the award.

“We are ecstatic to have received the nomination for Best Child Care Center for Babies in Dallas and Fort Worth,” said Lori Stewards, Executive Director of TLC Schools. “Our great staff and childcare team works tirelessly to improve the lives of both our children and their parents, and to receive recognition for their work makes me really proud.”

Voting is open now to the public and specifically readers of DFW Child. Those interested in voting are asked to visit the DFW Child website and fill out basic information. Other categories include Best Hospital to Have a Baby, Best Birthing Center, Best Midwife and more. Voting for all 8 categories puts voters in a drawing for a $500 gift card for Whole Foods.

TLC Schools works with young children to help create a safe and nurturing environment.
