

Minigarden in the News

Minigarden has been featured in several North American media sources and has a regular presence on the home and gardening trade show circuit.

Press Coverage:

1. The Globe & Mail: Living in a high-rise doesn't mean your green fingers are useless
2. CityLine Breakfast TV, Toronto
3. Carson Arthur's Favorite Products
4. House & Home Kitchens & Baths Special Issue

Events:

1. Independent Garden Show - Chicago
2. Cultivate - Columbus, Ohio
3. Green Living Show - Toronto
4. Canada Blooms - Toronto
5. Landscape Ontario - Toronto
6. Interior Design Show - Toronto

About Minigarden

Minigarden is an innovative vertical gardening system that offers endless configurations to create green wall planters in any space. From backyard vegetable farming, to decorative urban gardening displays, to larger architectural installations in commercial settings, Minigarden offers endless possibilities to home gardeners and designers alike. Minigarden products can be found online at www.minigardening.com, and also at fine garden retailers and design stores across North America.

For more information, please contact Susan Austin at susan@minigardening.com.