

“Wealth brings opportunities as well as challenges and complexity. Clients deserve to have a thoughtful and coordinated plan that is specifically designed for their goals and concerns. It is a privilege to serve my clients by working each day to make a positive difference in their lives.”

EDUCATION

Master of Business Administration,
Georgia State University
Bachelor of Arts, Emory University

PROFESSIONAL AND CIVIC AFFILIATIONS

Atlanta Estate Planning Council,
Board Member
Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta,
Legacy Advisory Council Member
Community Foundation for Greater
Atlanta, Planned Giving Advisory
Board Member
Frazer Center, Board Member
Georgia Planned Giving Council
Board, Past President and Treasurer

CONTACT INFO

T 404-573-4876 F 404-573-4877

600 Peachtree Street, NE
Suite 2700
Atlanta, Georgia 30308

elizabeth.snyder@signaturefd.com
www.signaturefd.com

ELIZABETH SNYDER

PRINCIPAL

Elizabeth joined the SignatureFD team in 2014, bringing with her two decades of experience in investment management, estate planning, philanthropy and financial advisory services. As a principal with SignatureFD, she works with individuals, families, endowments and foundations to provide tailored solutions designed to meet their unique financial goals. Elizabeth thrives on knowing that her work has made a positive and measurable difference in the lives of her clients, whether it is through helping them find fulfillment through charitable giving or peace of mind in their estate and financial plan.

Prior to joining SignatureFD, Elizabeth worked for some of the country’s leading wealth management and family office firms, including GenSpring Family Offices and Wilmington Trust. She began her career in the nonprofit sector and continues to enjoy connecting her work with her desire to help others.

As a recognized expert on philanthropy and family governance, Elizabeth has delivered presentations on these topics to many groups, including the Private Wealth Management Summit and the Institute for Private Investors. She has also shared her expertise on legacy planning, charitable giving and investing with Private Wealth, Financial Advisor, InvestmentNews, Atlanta Business Chronicle and other publications. She was a member of the inaugural class of the Philanthropic Advisors Leadership Institute of Atlanta and a 2001 Hull Leadership Fellow with the Southeastern Council of Foundations. She is on the board of the Atlanta Estate Planning Council.

Elizabeth is also a leader with a number of Atlanta-area charitable and community organizations. She is on the board of the Frazer Center, a nonprofit serving children and adults with developmental disabilities; a member of the Community Foundation for Greater Atlanta Planned Giving Advisory Board; a Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta Legacy Advisory Council member; a committee member for the Woodruff Arts Center Annual Campaign; and a volunteer with the Holy Innocents’ Episcopal School Capital and Annual Campaign. Elizabeth lives in Sandy Springs with her husband, Scott, and her children, Sam and Sarah. She enjoys traveling with her family and cooking.