

The momma grizzly bear was taking a walk through the jungle with her cubs when they became aware of the jungle being in danger. So the grizzlies rushed home and told the papa grizzly what they saw. Papa grizzly went to see Lony the lion and informed him of what his family saw. Lony the lion scheduled a meeting for all the animals to attend, and they all showed up for the meeting. At the meeting, they all worked together to come up with a plan to save the jungle, and then they put their plan into action.
