American Staffing Association celebrates Tannenbaum Helpern's 20+ years of support

New York, NY, February 9, 2015—In the November/December 2014 issue of Staffing Success, the American Staffing Association (ASA) recognized Tannenbaum Helpern Syracuse & Hirschtritt LLP for its support of the staffing industry for over 20 years. Tannenbaum Helpern's Staffing Industry Practice has over 35 years of experience representing staffing firms, ranging from single office operations to publicly and privately-held national and international multi-office operations and franchised locations. Legal services include assistance with: unfair competition claims, labor and employment issues, administrative law compliance, intellectual property matters, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, licensing, franchising, confidentiality agreements, restrictive covenants, litigation and various corporate matters.

"We are proud to be a long-term member of the American Staffing Association, advancing the interests of the staffing, recruiting and workforce solutions industry," said Joel A. Klarreich, chair of Tannenbaum Helpern's Staffing Industry Practice and General Counsel to the New York Staffing Association. "Guiding staffing and permanent placement firms through the various legal minefields that exist requires an intimate knowledge of the industry, which we have. Tannenbaum Helpern has successfully assisted innumerable staffing and recruiting firms through all phases of their growth and expansion," Klarreich added.

A frequent speaker on legal issues affecting the industry, Klarreich will be speaking at the 2015 ASA Staffing Law Conference in April on how firms can protect themselves and their clients from EEOC charges. In addition, Tannenbaum Helpern is a premier sponsor of ASA's Staffing World 2015 this October.
