Did you know?

Did you know that more than 16 million American children live in poverty? For kids in need, having access to healthy foods and personal care items can be a daily challenge. Children with access to basic resources are better equipped to succeed academically and socially, and that's why Champions for Kids is teaming up with Emerald, Kettle Brand, General Mills, Kellogg's and Walmart to help give kids the resources they need to thrive.

You can help by simply purchasing and donating nutritious foods and essential personal care items at your local Walmart store from February 18 – March 4. All donations will help children in your community.

Champions for Kids makes it simple to give kids in your community the resources they need to thrive.
