- The Gurkha Warpig box-pressed toro is handmade with Dominican and Honduran long-fillers, secured with a Dominican binder and a Connecticut Broadleaf Maduro wrapper

LAKE FOREST, Calif. (March 04, 2015) – As part of its March shipment, The Premium Cigar of the Month Club™, an online, subscription-based cigar club featuring world-class cigars, is supplying members with a new and exclusive cigar: the Gurkha Warpig box-pressed toro.

“We’re targeting 4-6 club exclusives this year and have approached quite a few manufacturers in the process. We were thrilled when Gurkha accepted the challenge,” says Kris Calef, President and founder of MonthlyClubs.com® and The Premium Cigar of the Month Club. “We’re big fans of the brand over here and the box-pressed toro they created just for our members will not disappoint. It’s artfully constructed, complex and big in body and flavor.”

The Gurkha Warpig box-pressed toro, a variation of the popular Warpig, is a handmade cigar featuring a careful blend of Dominican and Honduran long-fillers secured by a Dominican binder, which is encased in a dark, oily Connecticut Broadleaf Maduro wrapper. When smoked, the Gurkha Warpig box-pressed toro offers a full-bodied flavor with notes of espresso, cocoa, pepper, and cedar, with a long, smooth finish. The Premium Cigar of the Month Club suggests pairing the Gurkha Warpig box-pressed toro with coffee.

For over 125 years, Gurkha has been producing high-quality, handmade cigars featuring limited-release and rare tobacco products from around the world. To learn more about Gurkha cigars, visit www.gurkhacigars.com.
