GameTime Miami soon to reveal over $1 Million in upgrades as they roll out a new design concept for the popular FEC chain

Release Site:

Miami, Florida

Since GameTime Owner and CEO Mike Abecassis took over GameWorks in Miami back in 2010, he has been maintaining and updating the Family Entertainment Center, but now recognizes the need to take his FEC to a whole new level with a new design concept that is certain to catch the attention of a more broad and larger clientele.

With high-end modern materials and furnishings, GameTime Miami will be transformed to reveal over $1 Million in upgrades throughout the center. This will include a new Restaurant that will accommodate larger parties, outdoor seating, a new audio visual experience, new banquet space, remodeled Sports bars and upstairs billiard lounge, new restrooms and more advanced systems throughout their mega-arcade that holds over 120 of the latest and greatest video games, simulators and redemption machines.

A new GameTime, coming soon to Ft. Myers, will follow the lead on this new design concept and will be the 3rd flagship (joining Miami and Tampa), of the GameTime brand and the 7th FEC to date.

The unveiling of this new design concept will take place late April at GameTime Miami, located in The Shops at Sunset Place. Stay connected by joining their Fun Club at www.gametimeplayers.com and get social with #GTplayers @GTplayers and Facebook.com/GTplayers
