Becky Moffitt, CMO of Tuleburg, a national marketing firm, is one of only six women honored by the University of the Pacific as a Community Member Woman of Distinction– 2015

March 27, 2015, Stockton, California- Becky Moffitt, CMO of Tuleburg was honored as a Woman of Distinction at the 14th Annual Luncheon presented by and held at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, California. Becky was recognized as an inspiring woman of the Stockton community.

The 14th Annual Women of Distinction Awards Luncheon recognizes female-identified Pacific students, faculty, staff and members of the Stockton community who have made significant contributions to the advancement of women and gender equity, and/or who have demonstrated outstanding professional or public leadership. Six awards are given each year: Pacific Staff, Pacific Faculty, Pacific Greek Woman, Graduate Student, Undergraduate and Stockton Community Member. This year's theme for Women of Distinction: "Everyday Feminism." Featured guest speaker is McGeorge School of Law alumna Dylan Sullivan, one of the first female judges in El Dorado County. Past recipients include: Joan Cortopassi, Suzanne Schultz & Joelle Gomez.

"Our community is filled with a number of great women and I am honored that they have selected me for such a meaningful award. I remain passionate about empowering women, and demonstrating to young girls that being a C-level Executive is a perfect place for a woman." - Becky Moffitt

An alumna of the Eberhardt School of Business at University of the Pacific and an active philanthropist devoted to serving her community, Becky founded Tuleburg (a name originally given to Stockton, CA because of the tule grass wetlands (tulares) of the Central Valley) in 2012 along side CEO, Jason Roth. Tuleburg is a full-service marketing firm based in Stockton, California, offering Web Development, Graphic Design, Public Relations, Business Development, Research and Marketing Services. www.tuleburggroup.com
