Management of the Holding

IGOR VOLKOV
MFX Group Holding President

From the date of establishment, MFX Group Holding activity was directed to creation of innovative financial instruments, and the holding developed along with the sphere of foreign exchange trading. We keep following this practice until now. That is exactly what the modern investment decisions of XXI century should be like, I think - guaranteed, liquid, with high interest rate.

This is what MFX Capital offers you today.

MARGARITA ZHIZNEVSKAYA
Investment manager MFX Capital

The industry of alternative investments changes with cosmic speed today. To gain a profit, managers working in the sphere of investment should be "up on the trend", work out the strategies of investment in the developing spheres and markets, while evaluating risks concerned with such decisions.

In MFX Group we manage to diversify risks in a way, that our investors gain profit regardless of microeconomic indicators of a single country. This is achieved through the global operations and development of the entire holding in various countries.
