Belvoir Federal Breaks Ground on New Ft. Belvoir Branch

Woodbridge, VA, May 12, 2015 — Belvoir Federal Credit Union breaks ground on the new Ft. Belvoir branch located in Ft. Belvoir, VA.

Patricia Kimmel, CEO/President of Belvoir Federal, stated during the groundbreaking ceremony, “It has been a long time coming since we asked for land to build a new branch on Ft. Belvoir, but now we have the land and we are prepared to build a great branch filled with the latest technological advancements for our members and soldiers.”

Belvoir Federal had many supporters at the groundbreaking, inclusive of base personnel and credit union industry representatives from the Virginia Credit Union League, CUNA (Credit Union National Association) and NAFCU (National Association of Federal Credit Unions). Col. Mitchell, CSM Guillory, and Deputy Director Brooks were in attendance alongside others from the Fort Belvoir Garrison Headquarters, FMWR (Fort Belvoir Morale, Welfare and Recreation), and ACS (Army Community Services). Belvoir Federal’s executive team and board of directors were also in attendance to help ring in the celebration.
