

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Jose Alvarez, Giovanni's Fish Market, 805-772-1276 or sales@GiovannisFishMarket.com

MAY 2015, MORRO BAY, CA—It takes heart to run a successful business, and for more than 30 years the DeGarimore family of Giovanni's Fish Market has made it their life's goal to contribute to the local community. To celebrate their third decade of business, and in tribute to the late Mike DeGarimore, his son and owner of the company, Giovanni DeGarimore is offering a day of "Free Fish and Chips for All" on Wednesday, June 3rd from 11am-6pm.

"My dad loved helping people in any way he could, and he passed those ethics down to me," DeGarimore says. "Now it's up to Giovanni's to give back to those in need."

The fish market, located on the Embarcadero in Morro Bay, encourages anyone (including the homeless community) to please stop by and enjoy the best fish and chips in the county, experience the view from the deck, and soak up the fun family atmosphere. Expect music, prizes and great food for a good cause.

No purchase necessary. Each person attending is entitled to one (1) fish and chips meal free of charge. Open to all residents of San Luis Obispo County.

Giovanni's Fish Market is located at 1001 Front Street, on the Embarcadero, in Morro Bay, CA