

About BioBridge Global

BioBridge Global helps save and enhance lives through its subsidiaries – collecting, processing and delivering biomaterials to medical professionals and researchers worldwide. Our nonprofit organization's infrastructure holistically enables the advancement of regenerative medicine. Throughout every facet of BioBridge Global is the potential to support biomedical research and development.

For more information, visit BioBridgeGlobal.org.

The South Texas Blood & Tissue Center specializes in a variety of blood resource management services. It collects and provides blood, plasma, platelets and other components to hospitals, clinics and researchers regionally and nationally.

SouthTexasBlood.org

QualTex provides infectious disease screening for blood, plasma and products. It also performs reference testing and clinical research for patients, donors and biological products and tests millions of samples yearly for its global clients.

QualTexLabs.org

GenCure focuses on regenerative medicine and uses the power of human cells and tissue to enhance lives and enable clinical advancements with processed tissue and cell-based therapies.

GenCure.org

The Foundation advocates for community awareness and develops financial and other resources in support exclusively of the work of BioBridge Global subsidiaries.

BloodnTissueFoundation.org