MEC NAMED TOP FABRICATOR FOR FIFTH CONSECUTIVE YEAR Mayville Engineering Company is First on the FAB 40 List of the Largest Fabricators.

Mayville, Wis. – Mayville Engineering Company, Inc. (MEC) has once again been named first on the FAB 40 list of the nation's largest fabricators which is published by The Fabricator magazine. This marks the fifth consecutive year that MEC has led the list.

"We're honored to once again be named #1 on the FAB 40 list of the largest fabricators," said Robert Kamphuis, chairman, president and CEO of MEC. "Our dedicated employee shareholders make this possible with their continued enthusiasm and hard work. As a 100% employee owned company we've been able to focus on customer success every day. Our employees understand that when our customers are successful, we will be successful. We have a very dynamic and experienced team and I'm proud of what we've been able to accomplish together." Kamphuis continued.

The company continues on an aggressive growth plan that is fueled by close partnerships with customers in the agriculture, commercial vehicle, construction, forestry, power sports, energy, military, industrial and mining markets. MEC operates 17 manufacturing facilities that are strategically located near its customers in five states and employs more than 2000 employee shareholders. MEC segments their business into four distinct groups; Fabrication, Tube, Performance Structures and Tanks. In many cases, leading OEMs look to MEC to provide complete product solutions from design to manufacture through to assembly and inventory management.

Ryan Raber, MEC's vice president of sales and marketing added, "We're very excited to again be named #1 on the FAB 40 list five consecutive times. We have great people here at MEC that are invested in the success of our clients. We're truly a complete solutions provider and a manufacturing partner for the leading OEMs in the market," he continued.
