LOCAL MARYLAND BAND THE SLANTED SOUND SELECTED TO PLAY ARTSCAPE 2015

Coming off of an amazing performance in support of their latest CD release “Between a Rock and a Funk Place” at the Rams Head Live - Baltimore, local funk rock group The Slanted Sound have been selected to play at Artscape 2015 on July 19 at 2:30PM on the Sound Off Live! Festival Stage. They were selected as one of the winning bands from a juried competition organized by the Baltimore Office of Promotion and The Arts held at the Metro Gallery.

The Slanted Sound was formed when a group of Maryland musicians and college students from Harford County Community College and Towson University came together around diverse musical influences such as Stevie Wonder, The Allman Brothers and Snarky Puppy. The band members are Keith Tuttle, Walsh Kunkel, Zachary McKinney, Graham Mitchell, Riley Battaglia, Mohammed Gbadamosi, Laura Banner and Jake Fidler.

You can find background, pictures, music, videos and more about The Slanted Sound at their websites:
