Eric Devansky Joins TruShield Security Solutions, Inc. As Global Director of Security Services.

TruShield's Latest Hire Brings About Top-Tier, Best-In-Class Practices To Its International Security Operations Practice.

Dulles, VA (June 24, 2015): TruShield Security Solutions, Inc. is proud to announce the addition of Eric Devansky to its Security Operations Team as the new Global Director of Security Services. Mr. Devansky's expertise and best-in-class practices, developed while working at General Dynamics Fidelis Cybersecurity, will enhance TruShield's growing international security solutions team.

"Eric brings with him a wealth of experience leading teams focused on helping enterprise clients reduce risks and securely manage complex technology environments" says Paul Caiazzo, Chief Security Architect of TruShield Solutions Security, Inc. "His technical acumen, detailed, client-first approach, and creative problem solving make him the perfect candidate to lead our consulting practice. In addition, Eric's experience guiding and implementing technology strategies at Fidelis, from startup through acquisition, make him an ideal addition to our senior leadership team. We're very excited to welcome him to the TruShield family!"

Mr. Devansky has experience overseeing the technical aspects of major corporate acquisitions and working with cross functional teams. In his previous roles, he was responsible for the daily operations, expansion, and security of the Information Technology department at Fidelis Cybersecurity. When General Dynamics acquired Fidelis, he spearheaded the transition of the organization's information systems, processes, and methodologies including a complete network upgrade and overhaul.

In his new role with TruShield, Mr. Devansky will be leading all international projects and will be tightly integrated into domestic consulting projects as well. Eric will be working with the leadership team to build new client relationships, develop new opportunities, and further enhance TruShield's service delivery capabilities.
