BOSTON, August 4, 2015 – Pop/rock sensations, Jacyn Tremblay and Peter Tentindo of Venus Mars Project, have once again worked their dual magic in their new release, #LaLaLaLove available for purchase on iTunes, Amazon, and Google Play, and stream on Spotify and Shazam.

#LaLaLaLove, produced by renowned producer/songwriter Anthony Resta, who has worked with legendary artists such as Elton John, Collective Soul, and Duran Duran, is a fun song about the reckless and whimsical feeling of falling in love.

“WHAT A THRILL IT IS TO FIND THE RARE COMBINATION OF SEASONED PROFESSIONALISM AND YOUTHFUL EXUBERANCE ALL IN ONE PACKAGE. CREATING MUSIC WITH JACYN AND PETER WAS ALL THAT AND SO MUCH MORE. THE OUTCOME WAS EQUALLY THRILLING! GREAT CHEMISTRY HERE!” – ANTHONY RESTA

Influenced by the classic rock edge and a modern pop sensibility, Tremblay and Tentindo have come together from their respective sonic realms to create a truly unique and thought-provoking musical experience with the Venus Mars Project. Tremblay and Tentindo, both natives of Danvers, Massachusetts, first met when they were cast together in an original rock horror musical, Scary Mary and the Audio Corsette, for Salem’s dynamic Halloween season of Haunted Happenings.

Tremblay, a singer/songwriter, is best known as a member of the Boston-based female pop/r&b vocal quartet, Jada, which, at one point, was signed with Universal Motown Records and saw several international hit singles. Tentindo is a professional guitarist, singer/songwriter, session musician, and teacher, who has opened for nationally respected acts like Alice Cooper, Heaven & Hell, and Queensryche, and was the backing band leader for Jimi Jamison (former lead singer of Survivor.)

Jordan Rich, radio talk show host at WBZ Radio, enthusiastically sums up the relentless appetite that Venus Mars Project has for creating and performing music. “Peter and Jacyn have what it takes – superb musicianship and tremendous passion. One really gets the feeling that they’re having a blast. And guess what? They are!”
