When the Property You Own is Also a Source of Income, Protecting it Against Loss of Income & Other Damage is Important-

How Do You Spend Your Time?

Protecting Your Time is Even More Important

Ask Yourself These Questions:

- ❓ Do you find yourself spending your entire weekend working at your rental property?
- ❓ Do you find yourself leaving work to deal with a rental emergency?
- ❓ Are you ever left to an event because you were dealing with problems at your rental?
- ❓ Have you ever excused yourself from an important meeting at work because of your rental?
- ❓ Are you late getting home because of your rental?
- ❓ Is your attendance ever missed at your child's game, recital, or school function because of your rental?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, then your rental is taking important time away from your family, personal or professional life. Time away from work and family is valuable time and causes undue stress and problems.

How Do You Find a Tenant Who Will Respect Your Real Estate Investment?

Advertising and choosing the right tenant can be frustrating. Sometimes the pressure to get a tenant into the unit causes a rush to judgment. Choosing an unqualified tenant can lead to problems down the line with late rent payments and personality issues. Tenant screening is the most important part of that decision making due diligence and will save you grief and loss of income down the line. Our tenant screening is built into the software.
