Yusen Logistics Earns Quest for Quality Award from Logistics Management Magazine

Secaucus, NJ: Yusen Logistics (Americas) Inc., a leading third-party logistics provider, has been recognized as one of the industry's top Intermodal service providers in Logistics Management Magazine's 2015 Quest for Quality Awards survey.

This award marks the third year Yusen Logistics has been named a leader in the Intermodal Marketing category and the fifth consecutive year of recognition overall.

"Praise from our customers is the highest reward and we take particular pride in being recognized as a top Intermodal Marketing service provider," said Brian Paolillo, Senior Vice President, Transportation. "This achievement is a testament to our commitment to delivering superior service and value to our customers and would not have been possible without the dedication and hard work of our team members."

Logistics Management Magazine has published the Quest for Quality Awards since 1983. This year, Logistics Management had 4,649 logistics and supply chain decision makers place their vote. This six-month research undertaking results in nine lists featuring 125 transportation and logistics services provider organizations that have gone for the gold and have achieved their mission of being designated "best of the best" by the readers of LM.
