The Redbows advent calendars range includes both desktop and wall hanging sizes in A5 and A4 sizes with portrait and landscape orientations. The advent calendars can be fully personalized with a wrap artwork or part-personalised with a range of standard templates. As well as printing on the outside of the cardboard covers, inside-door printing is available for some adverts, providing another space for a personalised message. Custom shapes are also available including a Christmas-tree design for the twelve days of Christmas and a templates for a phone, house, car, truck and hamburgers.

Redbows can also provide post cartons to protect the advent calendars during transit or post and arrange a complete fulfillment service including distribution to clients mailing lists. The materials used for some adverts can also be made from recycled materials for an eco-friendly marketing campaign.

“Promotional advent calendars are a great way to promote your company”, commented Dawn Koffler, Managing Director. “Everyone loves chocolates and we can now offer a wide variety of chocolates to cover ever customer taste. Advent calendars personalized in this way generate a huge amount of brand awareness and are one of our most popular at this time of year.”
