Welcome to the 24th Annual FlexPO Conference

The annual FlexPO Conference is in its 24th year and will be in Houston, Texas from October 19-22, 2015.

Chemical Market Resources Inc (CMR) is anticipating a large attendance in conjunction with the move to Houston and the exploration of the timely theme 'Chemical Industry Game-Changers: What's Next?'

FlexPO 2015 will be held at The Woodlands Waterway Marriott Hotel & Convention Center, just 30 minutes north of downtown Houston and 25 minutes from George Bush Intercontinental Airport. The Woodlands Waterway Marriott is located on The Waterway, adjacent to retail shops, restaurants, and entertainment venues.

The Convention Center is an exceptional meeting space with state of the art conference facilities.

Delegates have the opportunity to attend more than 30 expert presentations covering the latest industry news on new technologies, catalyst innovations, product development trends and the latest market dynamics while also experiencing an industry-wide networking opportunity like no other.

Attendance at FlexPO 2015 will provide critical insights over a range of contemporary topics that will help shape your future business decisions.

We look forward to you joining us for the 24th Annual FlexPO conference.
