

The New Issue of Family Lawyer Magazine Focuses on High-Stakes – Including High-Asset and High-Conflict – Divorce

The new issue of Family Lawyer Magazine has a special focus on high-stakes divorce, including an insider's view of "Hamm v. Hamm: the 'King Kong' of Divorce Cases", as well as interviews and advice from prominent family lawyers and financial professionals who concentrate on high-asset and/or high-conflict divorce cases.

TORONTO, ON (Sept. 22, 2015) — The new issue of Family Lawyer Magazine has a special focus on high-stakes divorce.

At some point in their careers, most lawyers dream of landing a case that will set precedents, attract peer or media attention, make their reputation, or make them a lot of money. Some family lawyers will spend months or years seeking the one case that will accomplish all four goals – but a lawyer who has had one or more such cases might offer their colleagues these words of caution: “Be careful what you wish for, because you just might get it.”

High-stakes cases are not a good fit for every family lawyer or financial divorce professional; the rewards may be greater, but the risks and challenges are also greater.

In this issue, the magazine's editors asked six prominent family law attorneys with extensive experience in high-stakes divorce cases to share some of their best advice about what it takes to land and successfully represent these kinds of clients (see “High-Stakes Divorce: Q&A with Leading Attorneys”). Since each of these lawyers could probably write a book on the topic, the full interviews for this article are available as podcasts at FamilyLawyerMagazine.com/articles/high-stakes-divorce-interviews.

This issue of Family Lawyer Magazine also offers an insider's view of “Hamm v. Hamm: the ‘King Kong’ of Divorce Cases”, which discusses Harold Hamm's role in the growth of Continental Resources. Other high-stakes articles include:

- “The Gentleman Advocates: Bernard Rinella and Donald Schiller”
- “Settling the Divorce Pre-Suit for High-Stakes Clients”
- “The Ins and Outs of Representing High-Net-Worth Clients”
- “3 Valuation Issues in High-Stakes Divorce”
- “Avoiding Tax Traps in High-Asset Cases”
- “Mediation vs. Litigation for High-Conflict Divorce”
