NEHITA

Fine Jewelry Designs and Time Pieces

Ruby, Sapphire, Emerald, Citrine, Amethyst, Tourmaline, Peridot, Topaz, Iolite and Diamonds are the stones of choice for African born, Los Angeles based jewelry designer Monalisa Okojie, founder and CEO of Nehita, an exquisite jewelry collection for that person who loves elegance with a touch of attitude. A practicing attorney in her native home of Nigeria, Monalisa gave up a promising career in law to pursue her passion of being a world-renowned jeweler. Having graduated in 2008, from the prestigious Gemological Institute of America, Monalisa wasted no time, launching Nehita. Drawing inspiration from her African heritage, Monalisa creates a luxurious collection that accurately pays attention to detail that delivers a natural splendor, using only the finest of handpicked exotic stones, gold's and conflict free diamonds. Since Nehita's debut collection in 2008, it has been seen on top celebrities such as, Whitney Houston, Natalie Cole, Alan Cumming, Melora Hardin, Josh Henderson, Sally Pressman, CCH Pounder, Lu Parker, Norah Jones, Nick Cannon, Meagan Good, Brandy, Hosea Chanchez, Jesse Tyler Ferguson, Carrie Ann Inaba, Sisse Marie, Quinton Aaron, Malina Moyo, Alison Krauss, Randy Jackson, Lisa Raye, Christelle, Omarosa, Vince Gelonese and many more others. Nehita has received rave reviews and is projected to be one of the most promising and creative collections. Nehita Jewelry has been seen in fashion shows, television, and magazines in Los Angeles, Las Vegas, Miami, New York, Europe, Dubai, Australia and Africa. As civic minded, as she is stylish, Monalisa donates a generous portion of Nehita's profits to charities such as the Upward African Woman, Jenesse Center Domestic Violence Intervention Program, Woman 2.1 and many others. Nehita jewelry celebrates success, no matter how big or small.
