TruShield Continues Its Dedication To Providing Top Tier IT Security to The Banking Industry

Dulles, VA (October 12, 2015): TruShield Security Solutions, Inc. is proud to announce its presence again at the Jack Henry Banking Educational Conference and Technology Showcase. TruShield representatives will be on hand to interact with conference attendees to discuss their bank security concerns, demonstrate some of the capabilities of their Security Operations Center and their unique approach to 24/7/365 monitoring, alerting, and incident response.

TruShield Representatives will also be on hand to discuss:

- Managed Security Information and Event Management (SIEM) Solutions
- Compliance - Including PCI - DSS and FFIEC
- Penetration Testing
- Risk Assessments

"Attacks are coming from all corners of the globe and executives at all levels are worried. Our continued attendance at the Jack Henry Banking and Educational Conference and Technology Showcase demonstrates our commitment to addressing the unique cyber security needs of the banking sector, now and in the future" states Adley Francois, Executive Vice President. Eric Devansky, TruShield's Global Director of Security Services, adds "All of the threat intelligence we've seen points to both exciting and frightening times in IT security in the upcoming year for the banking industry. We're proud to be attending again this year and continuing to bring best in class security services to the banking industry."

The Jack Henry BEC and Technology Showcase is held annually. This year's event will be at the Gaylord Palms in Orlando, Florida from October 12th through October 15th. To Learn more, visit: <http://www.jackhenrybanking.com/Learn-More/Pages/Annual-Conference.aspx>.
