Belvoir Federal Shreds More Than 8 Tons at Annual Shredding Event

Woodbridge, VA, October 20, 2015 — On Saturday, October 17, 2015, Belvoir Federal Credit Union hosted their Annual Community Shredding event in Woodbridge, VA. This free, community event was open to members and non-members.

This year's shredding event, assisted hundreds of people in more than 200 cars and shred over 8 tons of paper, which is more than previous events. Belvoir Federal partnered with TrueShred to have two shred trucks available for patrons who came to shred their documents securely.

Belvoir Federal strives to be environmentally friendly and a leader in innovative technologies that help members be environmentally concise. To help the ecosystem and our members stay committed to helping the environment, Belvoir Federal Credit Union offers an annual shredding event, electronic receipts and statements, online and mobile banking, and uses paper cups instead of Styrofoam.
