Fight Network Launches in Bosnia, Serbia and Montenegro

Toronto – Anthem Sports & Entertainment Corp. announced today that Fight Network, the world's premier combat sports television channel, has signed a multi-year deal with RTV Pink to expand its European broadcast footprint to carriers in Bosnia, Serbia and Montenegro. Fight Network will be included in RTV Pink's Klik Pink platform, transmitting to over 100 cable operators in the region and adding over 300,000 new subscribers.

Fight Network is a 24/7 HD television channel dedicated to complete coverage of combat sports. It airs programs focused on the entire scope of the combat sports genre, including mixed martial arts, boxing, kickboxing, professional wrestling, traditional martial arts, fight news and analysis, as well as fight-themed drama, reality series, documentaries and feature films. Fight Network's dynamic programming lineup includes live events from around the world and extensive news coverage. Fight Network is distributed on cable, satellite and IPTV systems in the U.S., Canada and over 30 countries across Europe, Africa and the Middle East, as well as globally on digital platforms, including online, mobile apps and streaming devices.

"Our launch on RTV Pink significantly expands our presence in Eastern Europe, marking yet another important milestone in our global multi-platform growth strategy," said Leonard Asper, CEO of Anthem Sports & Entertainment Corp. "As the exclusive home of some of the world's biggest mixed martial arts, boxing and kickboxing events, Fight Network's combat sports content is a perfect fit for subscribers in the region."

RTV Pink is owned by Pink Media Group, the largest media conglomerate in the Balkans. Fight Network is owned by Anthem Sports & Entertainment Corp.
