

2015 Maryland Lean Government Conference

4-5 November, 8:00 am to 4:00 pm
Radisson North Baltimore Hotel, Timonium, MD

The 2015 Maryland Lean Government Conference will introduce you to proven techniques to:

- Improve outcomes for citizens and business, across all functions and levels of government
- Achieve better cost, quality and schedule performance
- Create a more rewarding, consistent, hassle-free workplace for government employees

Wednesday, 4 November, 8am–4pm - Presentations by government for government:

- State of Washington: Hollie Jensen, Enterprise Lean Consultant, Results Washington
- State of Colorado: Henry Sobanet, Director, Governor’s Office of Budgeting and Planning
- State of Connecticut: Alison Newman Fisher, Program Director, LeanCT
- City of Baltimore: Andrew Kleine, Budget Director & Amy Costanzo, Senior Program Assessment Analyst, Bureau of the Budget and Management Research

Thursday, 5 November, 9:30–11:40am - Lean Government Forum and Panel Discussion:

- Join us for an interactive forum featuring Wednesday’s speakers and Darlene Dumont, Public Service Program Director at the Lean Enterprise Institute
- Our expert panel will answer your questions on getting started, resources, and next steps

[www.mwcmc.org/
LeanGovernment](http://www.mwcmc.org/LeanGovernment)

The 2015 Maryland Lean Government Conference is part of the 2015 Mid-Atlantic Lean Conference. Government registrants are welcome to enjoy both conference attractions!

[www.mwcmc.org/
2015Conference](http://www.mwcmc.org/2015Conference)

What is “Lean Government”?

Lean: A set of principles and practices, used for decades, that engages all employees to create a culture of daily, systematic process improvement.

Lean Government: Lean methods applied to government processes that create better outcomes for employees, citizens, and business.

More information and case studies are available on our website www.mwcmc.org/LeanGovernment.

Maryland World Class Consortia
401 East Pratt Street, 17th Floor
Baltimore, Maryland 21202

Price: $389 includes breakfast and lunch both days

Register: <http://www.mwcmc.org/LeanGovernment>

Location: Radisson North Baltimore Hotel

2004 Greenspring Drive, Timonium, MD

Info: Jeff Fuchs, Executive Director

jeff@leanmaryland.com 443-865-2198