

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Hanover Theatre to Host Deepak Chopra, Co-Author of the Soon-to-be-Released Book “Super Genes”

Worcester, Mass. (November 5, 2015) Deepak Chopra MD, FACP, founder of The Chopra Foundation and co-founder of The Chopra Center for Wellbeing, is due to appear at The Hanover Theatre for the Performing Arts on Wednesday, November 11 at 7:30PM. Dr. Chopra is a world-renowned pioneer in integrative medicine and personal transformation. He is the author of more than 80 books, including several New York Times bestsellers. His latest book “Super Genes” is due to release on November 10, the day before his event in Worcester.

Some of his latest New York Times bestsellers include “What Are You Hungry For: The Chopra Solution to Permanent Weight Loss, Well-Being, and Lightness of the Soul,” “Super Brain: Unleashing the Explosive Power of your Mind to Maximize Health, Happiness, and Spiritual Well-Being” and “Reinventing the Body, Resurrecting the Soul.” TIME Magazine regards Deepak Chopra as “one of the top 100 heroes and icons of the century” and credits him as “the poet-prophet of alternative medicine.”

For decades, medical science has believed that genes determine our biological destiny. Dr. Chopra, along with his co-author Dr. Rudolph Tanzi, has delved into the genetics revolution, exploring a way for people to influence their own gene activity. When you make lifestyle choices that optimize how your genes behave, you can reach for a state of health and fulfillment undreamed of, even a decade ago. The impact on prevention, immunity, diet, aging and chronic disorders is unparalleled and will revolutionize how we understand ourselves and the health of those around us. Dr. Chopra will address these questions as well as practical ways to experience higher consciousness, transformation and healing.

About The Hanover Theatre

The Hanover Theatre continues to draw over 170,000 patrons annually with world-class performances and headlining acts including Broadway hits ("Les Misérables," "Jersey Boys," "Camelot"); comedians (Dave Chappelle, Jay Leno, Daniel Tosh); musical acts (Neil Young, Aretha Franklin, John Legend); and everything in between ("A Christmas Carol," Maya Angelou, Rudy Giuliani, Alvin Ailey American Dance Theatre). Consistently ranked by POLLSTAR as one of the Top Theatres in the World, the theatre opened in March of 2008 following a $32 million historic renovation. Over the last seven seasons, the theatre has established its place as a world-class performing arts venue, acting as a catalyst for the economic development of downtown Worcester. In the spring of 2015, the theatre finalized the purchase of a vacant, three-floor former office building with street-level retail space at 551 Main Street. The building will ultimately house office space for theatre administration, function areas, a restaurant on the ground floor and an educational space on the lower level. The building is set to open in 2016.

Worcester Center for Performing Arts, a registered not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization, owns and operates The Hanover Theatre for the Performing Arts. All donations are tax deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law.
