Enzoani represents timeless elegance and describes their 2016 collection as show-stopping, dramatic and as gorgeous as ever.

Whether your heart's desire is a grand ball gown, incredible hand-sewn beading, embroidery or the sleekest mermaid styles; you will not want to miss the Enzoani Trunk Show at Patricia South Bridal.

The Enzoani bridal brand emerged in 2006, and quickly rose to compete with the top in the industry by merging traditional and modern European styles into exquisitely hand crafted gowns.

From its initial launch, the Enzoani bridal collection has become one of the most renowned brands across multiple countries due to its focus on innovative style, exceptional quality and above all a fit and finish like no other. See more at: <http://enzoani.com>

Now a decade later, Enzoani is proud to continue the same focus on the highest quality and attention to detail.

Enzoani's 2016 "Curve Appeal" collection is a hip-hugging mermaid style, sleek and sophisticated, all the more alluring with romantic floral lace appliques and dramatic lace-trimmed skirts that flair at the knees. Ask for couture styles Kendra & Kendall.

The "Illusive Illusions" couture collection is both mysterious and modern, with just the right balance between modest and sexy – it's no wonder illusion backs and necklines are a high style in high demand.

Ask for couture styles Kamila, Karina, Kaitlyn and Kasia.

"Finishing Touches" by Enzoani is all about the details and these dazzling gowns are exceptional. No expense has been spared as every last bead, sequin, and Swarovski crystal was meticulously planned out by designer Kang Chun Lin, and painstakingly stitched by hand to stunning effects. Ask for styles Kassidy, Kerianna,

"Enzoani is contemporary, conservative, high-fashion and very much represents Florida bride says owner, Patricia South, of Patricia South Bridal and Formal.
