About The Grommet:

The Grommet is a Product Launch Platform for early-stage consumer products that partners with independent makers, inventors, and entrepreneurs to launch a new product every weekday at 12 noon EST.

The Grommet discovers, evaluates, and sects products (or "Grommets") and has helped more than 2,000 companies across 20 categories reach consumers through its curation, storytelling, ecommerce, marketing and fulfillment management.

The Grommet is disrupting the traditional retail model with a new vision for e-commerce and wholesale distribution, changing the way people buy products online by helping them find products that align with their own values or retail setting. It's like ABC's Shark Tank, but where consumers decide what will be a success.
