USA Diving Selects Colorado Time Systems for Elite Events

Loveland, CO—January 28, 2016— USA Diving has announced their equipment provider of choice for several elite events this year.

Colorado Time Systems, a PlayCore company, will be providing equipment and personnel to run the FINA Puerto Rico Grand Prix, USA Diving, Synchronized National Championships, U.S. Olympic Team Trials - Diving, and the AT&T USA Diving National Championships in 2016.

"USA Diving appreciates the loyal partnership of Colorado Time Systems," said Linda Paul, USA Diving President and CEO. "The new wired diving equipment has proven itself to be very robust and reliable."

"The opportunity to provide our diving equipment and professional staff at these events is a true testament to the reliability of the wired diving product," said Rick Connell, Vice President and General Manager for Colorado Time Systems. "We look forward to the continued success of these events and further strengthening our partnership with USA Diving."
