October Three Consulting Opens New Office in Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., FEB. 25, 2016 – October Three Consulting, a Chicago-based actuarial firm specializing in the design and administration of retirement plans, is expanding their pension plan administration services to a new office in Jacksonville, Fla. Effective immediately, October Three's eighth office will handle call center, case management, fulfillment and distribution processing responsibilities for their corporate clients. These operations will be run by pension experts using the firm's proprietary administrative system, the O3 Daily Platform.

"Opening our new office in Jacksonville allows us to take advantage of a tremendous pool of talented local resources experienced in benefit administration" said Monica Gallagher, Partner and Head of the Jacksonville office. "As we expand our business, we are also excited by the opportunity of hiring new college graduates from one of the many fine local colleges and universities."

Located in the Quadrant building on 4651 Salisbury Road, the Jacksonville office is conveniently located at the intersection of Interstate 95 and Butler Blvd. "We currently have over 4,000 square feet of space under lease, and anticipate needing more space within the next few years as the business grows" says Gallagher.

"Pension plans are complex and require a dedicated focus. Our new administrative center, staffed with highly specialized pension experts, will offer a needed service to plan sponsors. Higher quality and cost effective solutions delivered through a modern technology platform is what we deliver, which has been missing from standard marketplace offerings" stated Jeff Stevenson, President and CEO of October Three Consulting.

October Three, while headquartered in Chicago, stretches across the United States with offices in Boston, Dallas, Denver, Jacksonville, New York, Los Angeles, and San Francisco. In addition to an extensive US presence, October Three is represented in over 65 countries through its international alliance with Abelica Global.
