Belvoir Federal Hosts Grand Opening Event for Fort Belvoir Branch

Woodbridge, VA, March 7, 2016 — Belvoir Federal Credit Union hosted a Grand Opening celebration event for their newly built branch on Fort Belvoir Military Installation in Fort Belvoir, VA.

The modern branch features state-of-the-art teller stations that have a virtual teller along with a pod area where members can conduct business with a member service representative. Additionally, the branch’s design offers an open concept with a refreshment café, elevated ceilings allowing for natural light to cascade into the branch, and a welcoming greeter station that has a kiosk for members to utilize.

Deputy Garrison Commander Stephen W. Brooks cut the ribbon along with Belvoir Federal’s CEO/President Patricia Kimmel. Also in attendance: Executive Vice President & Chief Operating Officer of National Association of Federal Credit Unions (NAFCU) Anthony Demangone, Chief of Staff and Chief Operating Officer of Credit Union National Association (CUNA) Rich Meade, members of Belvoir Federal’s Board of Directors and staff, Public Affairs Officer (PAO) for the Garrison Joe Richard, Director of Resource Management for the Garrison Mike Bidelman, Command Sergeant Major (CSM) Scott Guillory, Battalion Commander Lieutenant Colonel Phillip Lenz, CSM Richard Carullo, Battalion Deputy Public Works CSM Chris Landgraff, Director of Fort Belvoir Morale, Welfare, and Recreation (DFMWR) Berry Patrick and his team, the Fort Belvoir Fire Station, and the Fort Belvoir Chapel. The ribbon cutting ceremony began with a prayer by Chaplain Kurt Spond.

“We are proud of our Military Installation and although it’s taken quite some time to have the opportunity to build a new branch for our members on Ft. Belvoir, I am honored to say that we have succeeded. Our branch offers members efficiency, modern technology, and the same great, personalized member service,” stated Patricia Kimmel.

The event featured coffee and donuts in the morning, followed by hotdogs, chips, and drinks for lunch, and branded cakes for the ribbon cutting ceremony in the afternoon. The branch is located at 9651 Gunston Road, Building 1152 Fort Belvoir, Virginia 22060.
