

Stop posting jobs. Start marketing them!

Transform the way candidates engage with your job descriptions by making them visual. It's easy with ViziRecruiter, a new recruitment marketing platform designed to attract top talent to your company by giving your text-heavy job descriptions a personality.

ViziRecruiter

A Vizi is worth a thousand words.

Job candidates looking for exciting work will struggle to find it in an average job description. They're cluttered, text-heavy and impossible to distinguish from one another. ViziRecruiter adds the visual elements missing from nearly every job description. We call them Vizis, and they transform the long paragraphs that turn candidates off, into personalized, interactive website pages that compel candidates to apply. Simply copy and paste your job descriptions into our platform and your Vizi is created in minutes.

Start attracting top talent to your organization today. It's easy and inexpensive with ViziRecruiter.
