

SIKA USA - PROUD RECIPIENT OF 100+ ICRI AWARDS

Sika is honored to be the first company to achieve a significant milestone with our industry partner, the International Concrete Repair Institute. We are proud to be the first company to win more than 100 Project Awards. We thank you and celebrate this moment of success with you. We are humbled to be recognized by our peers and customers as a leader in the concrete repair industry and we take great pride in this achievement.

Everyday we build trust with our superior quality and innovative products that are supported by expert technical and customer service teams. We've lived this mission for more than 100 years and we look forward to a very promising future.

Thank you to The Concrete Repair Institute for sharing our vision of excellence in concrete repair and to our Sika sales and service teams for making it happen.
