

Litigator Scrub

Get them off your list before you ever call!

The TCPA has created the perfect storm for vexatious litigators who prey on unsuspecting contact centers and sellers. Litigators and serial lawsuit filing plaintiff firms are purposely opting into lead generation programs and online forms in an effort to solicit calls and texts that they turn into TCPA and class action suits.

Until recently, it was almost impossible to know if you had litigator phone numbers hiding in your campaigns. Fortunately, Contact Center Compliance has leveled the playing field with Litigator Scrub, the industry's premier defense against the growing number of professional litigators.
