

Chinavasion Disrupts Wholesale Smartphone Market With First Android 6.0 Phone

Android 6.0 Smartphone disrupts wholesale phone market as Chinese manufactures close the gap with western counterparts in a bit to grow market share.

Chinavasion offers the latest smartphones to a growing consumer base with newly launched Android 6.0 Smartphones.

Ms. Rose Li, PR Manager at Chinavasion, says, "The design and specs of the latest Android 6.0 phone is impressive. With its metal unibody, 3GB of RAM and an octa-core processor this phone offers very competitive features, but perhaps the most incredible aspect is the low cost."

Chinese Android phones have long offered excellent value for money, commonly bringing high end specs as well. The newer Chinese phones are able to rival flagship handsets from big name brands, which are common place in western markets. The major benefit of the Chinese branded alternatives is that they are often available at less than half the price of well known high street branded handsets.

Available in three colors the UMi Touch Smartphone retails from as little as $142. This phone, from manufacturers UMi, is one of the first Chinese smartphones available with Android 6.0, it also has a full HD screen, 2.5D arc glass and high end specs across the board.

This could well be the device that marks burgeoning Smartphone maker UMi as the next rising star to rival already established China smartphone heavyweights.

The UMi touch is the latest phone to show how Chinese phone manufacturers are targeting an ever more discerning consumer base and closing the gap with western brands. "As the year progresses we expect to see many more phones with even better specs that are capable of serving users from all around the globe", advised Mr. Eric Yu, Sourcing Manager at Chinavasion.

The main drawback, however, is many of the Chinese branded Smartphone's can be difficult to obtain outside of Asia. "Chinavasion's mission of opening up the Chinese market to western consumers provides a ready solution. As such we're always searching for new products so as we can remain at the forefront of supplying high end Chinese Smart phones and other hi tech gadgets at wholesale prices", said Eric Yu.

China wholesale dropshipping and ecommerce company, Chinavasion, have been supplying customers throughout the world, with phones and other China manufactured gadgets for over 10 years.

Offering wholesale prices, global express shipping and a 12 month warranty on all products, wholesale electronics company, Chinavasion, is making sure its customers can enjoy the latest gadgets at wholesale prices no matter where they are based.
