This month, Speedtech International, a pioneer in hook and loop cable management, celebrates its 20th year as a Wisconsin Based Corporation. Today, Speedtech's product line has grown to include hook and loop cable ties, straps and tapes as well as several specialty products. The company offers leading industrial brands including SPEEDWRAP®, Kwik Bandit™ and VELCRO® Brand Fasteners.

In 1996, Speedtech helped pioneer the first hook and loop cable management products. Since then, we've been dedicated to developing new products for this category, exceeding our customer's expectations and creating a thriving working environment for our employees.

Those amazing employees are the key to our success. We cannot thank them enough for their support and we're proud to continue our U.S. manufacturing from our factory in Racine, Wisconsin. Also a big thank you to our customers who have been with us for twenty years.

More About Speedtech:

Speedtech International Inc. pioneered the development of cable and wire management using hook and loop fasteners. Speedtech provides OEM's, engineers, product managers, purchasing agents and distributors the most complete line of hook and loop products including ties, straps, continuous rolls and unique patented fasteners. Today, the company also offers non-hook and loop products for bundling, banding, and securing wires and cables or for material handling. Newer products include the Kwik Bandit™ Rubber Banding Straps and the Ty-Up™ Pallet and Cargo Ties.
