

A New Approach to IT Staffing

Connecting the best tech talent with the right IT jobs

IT Staffing ■ The V-Soft Difference

V-Soft is more than a professional staffing firm. We operate as an IT talent partner, focusing on the delivery that enables business advancement and technology innovation. Through innovations in recruiting, retention, and sourcing, V-Soft's clients appreciate that our IT professionals on average stay over four years with the company, which is twice as long as the industry average. Experienced hybrid sourcing methods makes for smarter budgets.

Staffing by a Technology Company

With V-Soft, it's more than finding resumes and filling empty chairs. A good job in IT staffing is finding the right fit for your company. Since 1997, V-Soft has been trusted to deliver candidates that go beyond technical expertise requirements.

- Technically prescreened candidates that exceed requirements and match your company's culture
- Experienced IT recruiters understand what hiring managers are seeking in a position while being conscious of the needs of candidates
- Results that surpass your expectations

V-Soft is unique in that we're more than just an IT staffing business, we're a complete IT services provider. This provides you the benefit of a broader, more dependable pool of highly skilled IT consultants that other IT staffing companies simply cannot provide.

“Great leadership in the organization and quality consultants. They provide qualified candidates, not just bodies.”

- Keith B., IT Director, Electronic Retail Company

Agile for the Enterprise of Today

Today's business climate requires a staffing partner that adapts to your needs. Many IT staffing agencies rely on the same processes year after year and are not willing to change. V-Soft's success is linked directly to being a more agile company that accommodates your goals.

V-Soft Spotlight Calls Improve Success Beyond the Placement

This proprietary approach to recruiting establishes an open and collaborative partnership with business leaders and hiring managers. Taking the time to understand your company creates better outcomes.

- Achieves a deeper understanding of hiring needs and challenges
- More thoroughly creates matches of culture and social environments
- Improves candidate screening for the right matches before interviews, saving time

"V-Soft makes my job easier. They have competitive pricing, and their quality of consultants I get from them is consistently superior to those of other IT staffing companies."

- Director of Product Development, Long-Term Care Pharmacy Company

Business Solutions ■ Solving IT Challenges

More than just staffing, V-Soft has experienced project and support teams that bring projects to completion. Here are a few highlights on why V-Soft is trusted to deliver:

- Deep expertise with leading platforms in .Net, JAVA, Mobile, ServiceNow, MuleSoft, and more
- Hybrid sourcing model that budgets require
- Real-time access to all project contributors
- Agile project methodology that adapts to your goals
- Transparency in all facets of the project
