Where your money goes!

ABC2 is a nonprofit organization that doesn't follow conventional wisdom. We partner with scientists, physicians and drug companies to push the limits of science and technology. Since 2001, ABC2 has awarded more than 100 grants totaling over $20 million to world-renowned researchers and physician-scientists from 54 institutions. We think strategically about our research investments. Learn more about some of our featured projects at abc2.org.
