

Cardinal Memorial Holdings, LLC is Formed to Build the Leading Funeral Home Company in the United States

Cardinal Memorial Completes Acquisition of Chapel of Memories in Norwalk, CA

(Norwalk, CA., July 6, 2016) – Cardinal Memorial Holdings, LLC (“Cardinal Memorial”) today announced the acquisition of Chapel of Memories funeral home from Robert and Gracie Tucker.

“We are grateful to Bob and Gracie for building an incredible funeral home and for the Tucker family serving the Norwalk community for more than 60 years,” said Brady Perrigo. “We are excited to partner with Anthony Nunes and the outstanding team at Chapel of Memories to continue the Tucker family legacy for the next 60 years.”

Led by Brady Perrigo, Cardinal Memorial is a newly formed funeral home company that plans to grow by acquiring funeral homes across the United States. With each acquisition, Cardinal Memorial will partner with the existing funeral directors in order to maintain best-in-class service to families and communities. The company is committed to providing the country’s highest quality funeral service.

“We had a wonderful experience working with the Cardinal Memorial team and are confident that they will be great long-term owners of Chapel of Memories. They have partnered with the funeral directors that we personally hired and trained and will maintain the high standards of service and operations that we set,” said Bob Tucker.

###

About Cardinal Memorial

Cardinal Memorial Holdings, LLC was founded in 2016 to build the leading funeral home company in the United States. The Company acquired its first funeral home in June 2016 in Norwalk, California and plans to grow through additional acquisitions. Cardinal Memorial’s acquisition philosophy is to partner with existing funeral directors to maintain their high standards of service post-closing.