CDS Chicago Ranked Number One in eDiscovery
National Law Journal Names CDS Top “Best of Midwest” eDiscovery Provider in Two Categories

CHICAGO – The National Law Journal announced today that Complete Discovery Source (CDS) was voted the number one eDiscovery provider in two categories in the 2016 Best of the Midwest Survey. This is the second consecutive year that CDS has been nominated and ranked in this poll.

The regional survey of more than 1,000 legal professionals named CDS “Best eDiscovery Provider for Collection, Processing, ECA, Review, and Production” and “Best eDiscovery and Litigation Support Provider.” The results are announced in this week’s issue of the national publication.

Michael Milicevic, Managing Director of CDS Chicago, commented, “CDS is proud to be ranked number one in the Midwest. We will continue to provide the expertise, resources and exceptional customer service that have made us the national leader in electronic discovery for our clients in the region.”

CDS leads the industry by focusing on the core requirements of data discovery—creating a reliable, highly secure environment for sensitive data and providing the expertise and workflows that use technology defensibly—while providing clients with significant time and cost savings.
