Travel Trolley Launches 'Holiday Extra' for Online Booking of Sightseeing Tours

London, UK, 26 August 2016: Travel Trolley, the UK based Online Travel Company, has launched a new 'Holiday Extra' section on its website. Along with affordable flights and great value holiday deals, travellers will now be able to shop and book from thousands of sightseeing tours and activities as well as tickets to amusement and theme parks at destinations all over the world.

The new section on www.traveltrolley.co.uk will offer holiday makers the option to search, compare and book from over 5000 sightseeing tours, theme parks and attractions across 200 destinations. Users will also be able to view Travel Trolley's recommendation of the top selling tours.

Travellers can book their favourite tours, day trips, half day trips, and other things-to-do at the holiday destination independently of the main holiday or flight booking. The option will be particularly useful for those looking to book cheap tickets to theme parks such as Walt Disney World, Universal Studio, Disneyland etc before they jet off. It will also avoid disappointment as some of the world's most popular attractions tend to sell out during peak seasons.

The booking process is simple and quick. Travel Trolley's Holiday Extra is an efficient and secure online shopping cart platform where users can select and add tours, and activities to their travel trolley just like they would add items to their shopping carts on any shopping portal. Travellers only need to select the destination and the desired date, and the website returns a wide variety of options including tickets for tours, activities, attractions and amusement parks. Users will also see a detailed description of each option including the departure and drop off time, duration, meeting point, connectivity information etc. On checkout, the user can pay for the items in the cart through a secured payment gateway that accepts all kinds of credit and debit cards. As soon as the booking is confirmed the E-vouchers or tickets for the tour, activity or theme park will be dispatched to the customer.

Just like some of the most affordable flights, hotels and holiday package deals it sells online, Travel Trolley intends to make these destination tours and activities available to the holidaymakers at highly competitive prices. To accomplish this, Travel Trolley has not only leveraged its partnership with hotels, resorts and suppliers at global destinations, but has also collaborated with tour operator and suppliers of repute at the local level.

Mr. Jaymin Borkhatria, Sales Director of Travel Trolley, said the “Holiday Extra section will provide our customers with greater choice, more flexibility and ease when it comes to booking some of the top things to do at any destination. By providing this do-it-yourself option to book tickets for excursions, tours, amusement parks, theme parks and other activities, we have also given holidaymakers greater control over their holidays”.
