The Geothermal Resources Council Amateur Photo Contest

As part of the Geothermal Annual Meeting in Sacramento, California, USA, the GRC will hold its 37th Amateur Photo Contest. The purpose of the contest is to showcase quality photography featuring geothermal energy and to augment the GRC's photo library. Only amateur photographers are eligible to participate.

Entries

Photographs on any subject related to geothermal energy including geothermal energy production, EGS, Direct Use and geothermal heat pumps can be submitted. This includes photos in the areas of well testing, drilling, operation of geothermal equipment, newly developed equipment, or plant operation, construction of a geothermal plant or plant site and geological areas or manifestations that hold potential for geothermal exploration or development.

Either black & white or color photos taken by the entrant are acceptable. The photos must be submitted in a digital jpeg format. Photos taken with a digital camera are acceptable. Photos taken with a film camera can be converted to digital and put on a CD at stores that have a photo processing department. Entries should be emailed to grc@geothermal.org with "Photo Contest" in the subject line, or mailed as a CD (preferred) to GRC Photo Contest. If you submit your photos by email, please make sure the total files are under 10MB. The winning entries will be displayed in PowerPoint format before the Opening Session and posted during the GRC Annual Meeting.

"Cold Faithful" by Greg Rhodes, Reno, Nevada, USA. Honorable Mention in the 2015 GRC Photo Contest.

Judging Criteria

All photographs will be judged on their impact, relevance, composition and technical quality.

Submissions and Deadline

Use the GRC Photography Contest entry form, which will also be available on the GRC website, to submit your photograph(s). Up to three entries may be submitted. Each submission MUST be accompanied by a completed entry form. Forms must include the photo title, a description of the subject matter and location, names of people in the photo if they are part of the picture, date picture was taken, and a signature authorizing the release of the photo for inclusion in the GRC Photographic Library. The photographer's name, company, address, email and telephone number must also be provided.

Entries must be RECEIVED by the GRC office no later than September 16, to qualify for this year's contest.

Awards

Awards will be presented to winners at the GRC Annual Member Meeting and Awards Luncheon. First Place will receive $150, Second Place - $100, and Third Place - $75. Honorable Mention photos will receive certificates. The award checks will be drawn on a US bank.
