

Friendswood Community Church Announces Name Change to The Harbor

Name Changes to Better Reach the Bay Area

(FRIENDSWOOD, TEXAS) September 19, 2016 - Friendswood Community Church (FCC) announced they are changing their name to The Harbor on the weekend of November 6, 2016, to broaden their reach in the Bay Area.

Rick Baldwin, Senior Pastor of FCC commented: "We have always tried to remove barriers (music, dress, "church" language) that would keep people from clearly seeing Jesus and weighing His claim on their life. Increasingly the name of our church is a barrier to those outside of Friendswood. Removing this barrier is the driving force for changing our name to The Harbor."

Baldwin explained, "Our current name tells where we are. The Harbor tells who we are. Just as a harbor is a place where ships are restored, refueled, and returned to sea, The Harbor is a place where people are restored, refueled, and returned to live their daily lives with Jesus at the center."

FCC will begin a new series to share the deeper meaning behind The Harbor on November 6th.

About Friendswood Community Church

Almost 19 years ago, Friendswood Community Church was started by five couples who had a passion to introduce others to Jesus Christ and help them become fully devoted followers of Him. We have now celebrated with over 1200 who have become Followers of Jesus, and have seen many more grow in full devotion to Him. Our doors are wide open and God is doing a great work here. We invite you to come experience our services and get to know the people who serve the One who asks us to come as we are.

FCC is located at 2821 W. Parkwood, Friendswood, TX 77546. Our services are on Sundays at 9:30 and 11:00 AM.
