
LUX* Resorts & Hotels wins big at the TTG Travel Awards 2016

LUX* Resorts & Hotels is delighted and proud to announce its success at the TTG Travel Awards 2016. The group was named, for the third time, Luxury Hotel & Resort Operator of the Year by TTG, the global authority on luxury travel in the UK and the world.

“It is with great honour that we accept this prestigious award on behalf of everyone at LUX* Resorts & Hotels. It is through the passion and dedication of our fantastic teams that the Group is today performing at such levels and it is a strong testament on our unwavering commitment to deliver the best experience for our guests. LUX* Resorts & Hotels now look forward to 2017 where we will aim to continue creating unforgettable moments for all our guests,” said LUX* Resorts & Hotels Chief Sales & Marketing Officer Julian Hagger.

“It’s incredible that our brand is being recognized once again by such a reputable industry expert. We are extremely grateful to the team for the hardware that goes in delivering incredible level of service and unique experience in each of the destination where we operate,” continues the Chief Sales & Marketing Officer.

All the nominated hotel operators in this category had received high ratings by TTG agents and as part of the awarding process, each operator was assessed by panels of industry figures. The agent rating made 50% of the score and judges’ decisions the remaining 50%. TTG Travel Trade Publishing is regarded as one of the world’s most influential trade publishers. The TTG Travel Awards is reputed as the most coveted and influential awards to be won in the travel industry.
